[We are inside a mental hospital, where the administration and faculty have greenlighted a news program for mental patients, from mental patients.]

Announcer:

Live, from Living Room 5b at Happy Rainbows Clinic, it's the real news with Asylum News Today. Leave me alone. I said leave me alone! GOD DAMMIT, GET OUT OF MY HEAD!!

Scooter:

Good evening everyone! I'm Scooter Baconfort!

Andy:

And I'm Admiral Dwight D. Eisenhower, here to bring you the daily agenda set forth by the government and his soldiers of the Dark Realm. Ka-POW!

Scooter:

Ka-POW!

Today in the news, Lord Rahzalah the king of Snakes, known by the overworlders as "President Barack Obama", went on the television show "The View", to talk to four clucking hens. In it, he was asked if he knew the whereabouts of the evil orange fat troll of the Underbridge World, known as "Snookie". Upon hearing this question, Lord Rahzalah expanded his face until it revealed its' true hideous form of a cobra with thirteen eyes and thirteen fangs. It proceeded to devour all four hens, and then came out of the television and attacked me several times. Luckily, I was able to ward the demon back into the Netherworld using my Talisman of Kalijahax (raises arm to reveal his hospital ID wristband), once again saving the nation from true evil. He now slumbers until he regains his full human form, and will be back on the earth in six moons and seven suns.

Andy:

And I saw all of it! Thanks again for saving us Scooter, and thank the fountain fairies for the powers they bestowed onto you with such a device! Ka-POW!

Scooter:

Ka-POW!

Andy:

In other news, the squirrels outside told me that the chips secretly implanted into our arms by the agents of the Illuminati have secretly been changed last night while we slept, into more earth-friendly models, so we can all be living Green. But not me! I ate it out of my arm this morning. Now they can't control my mind ever again!

[raises arm to reveal a bloody mess on his forearm. You can see the bone]

Scooter and Andy:

Ka-POW!!

Scooter:

Today is day twenty-three of Lenny Bomwawa's mission against Evil. As you all know, every night, Lenny's soul leaves his body and travels to the center of the Earth, to a top-secret location, where he joins an elite secret society of heroes composed of Elvis Presley, Michael Jackson, Ted Kennedy, Brad Lee of Sublime, Chris Farley, and the head of Abraham Lincoln, who all band together to keep the earth safe from zombies with Lenny's help.

Andy:

Zombies? Oh Noes!

Scooter:

I saw a zombie once, he came and took my shoes and left.

Andy:

That's terrible!!

Scooter:

Don't you worry Mr. Eisenhower, because we're in good hands with Lenny and his team! Here's our senior correspondent, Jeffy Jiffjeff with the latest in the war. Jeffy?

[Cut to camera shot of Jeffy, wearing a big, red helmet. He is standing up, naked. There is a popsicle on the floor. He keeps yelling at it. Behind him we see another man sitting on the floor in the fetal position. His gown is dirty, his eye are wide open, and he keeps rocking himself back and forth. Now, we cut back to news duo]

Scooter:

Excellent report Jeffy!

Andy:

Maybe they'll let us see two movies tonight!

Scooter:

Ka-POW!

Andy:

And here's Dicky with the Weather. Dicky?

[Cut to a big map of the moon. It's all been wildly scribbled on with red marker. In front of it is Dickie in a hospital gown, wearing goggles, with his arms spread out, running in a circle. He thinks he is an airplane. He's making motor noises with his mouth. He is covered in feces. Cut back to thee news duo]

Andy:

Haha! Better bundle up then!

Scooter:

Ka-POW!

Andy:

Today in sports news, the mice from the 2nd floor hallway told me that Alex Rodriguez is just one home run away from being the 7th player ever to reach 600 career home runs. He was only able to reach 599, but went on to 34 homeless bats before the end of a game. The feat was made even more difficult, since he was playing against the Manta Ray people of Florida. Upon losing to the Manta Ray people, Alex Rodriguez was captured by them, and taken to Atlantis, where he and other Atlantians send me letters every day giving me instructions on how to build a ladder to Heaven. With more on this story is our junior correspondent, Peace and Love. Peace?

[camera zooms out to show Peace and Love sitting in with them. He looks very drugged]

Peace and Love:

Peace and Love y'all.

Andy:

What say you of this Alex Rodriguez controversy?

Peace and Love:

Forget all that. Just Peace and Love.

Scooter:

They better not serve spinach tonight. I don't like spinach. Spinach is too loud! It's TOO LOUD!!!

Andy:

How do you think this will impact the baseball world Peace and Love?

Peace and Love:

That's a human issue. I'm not human. I am one of many from another world far away that have taken a human form to help the Earth against the forces of hate and evil, and the Great Impending Flood. I am also the greatest rock star that has ever lived. Ever.

Scooter and Andy:

Ka-POW!

[Two large men in white enter the room. One has an injection. The other one has a first aid kit. They go for Andy. Andy runs for it]

Andy:

You won't get me this time, you Ghosts!

[a huge struggle is heard offstage. Andy is shortly placed back into the seat. He is severely drugged and, and his eyes are lifeless. His hair is a mess, his arm is bandaged, and he is drooling.]

Scooter:

This just in. My name is HatMan now. Ka-POW! We now bring you the Hollywood report, with Vuvuzela Jones. Over to you Vuvuzela!

[cut to a fat woman with bulging eyes. One eye is facing the roof. Another one is facing the floor. She has a total of four teeth. She is singing very off key, and very loud. Next to her is a Minotaur playing a toy xylophone. cut back to duo]

Hatman:

Thank you Vuvuzela! [phone rings offstage] Well, that sound means the year has become 1771 again, so that's the news for tonight. "Everybody Sedates Raymond" is coming up next, followed by "The Late Show with Flying Octopus King". His guest tonight? Locusts! And don't forget to tune in next week when former asylum queen Lady GaGa comes back home for the weekend to give us the Fashion Report. This is HatMan and Admiral Eisenhower saying "Ka-POW!!"

[Andy falls over face first, onto desk]

----- BLACKOUT -----
